Description: The race is a Team championship

The first 18 min. are practice. Then 8 min. of qualifying, the driver that takes the qualifying will also start the race, which is 9 ½ hours of Le Mans.

There will be re-fueling every second hour. (this will be done by Racehalls personal). At the same time the kart will be changed according to a predefined order. It is allowed to change driver at the same time. The distribution of karts for start of the race will be determent by draw.

Flag: Red: Race stopped, step on the brake and hold still until the race is restarted.

Yellow: Danger / accidents, slow down and overtaking is strictly forbidden.

Blue: You close or block another driver that is faster than you, let him/her pass.

Black / white: You have received a warning and must take stop and go penalty for 2 seconds.

Black: Penalty due to inappropriate driving. You must run into the pit and you are excluded from the heat. (At Le Mans you will receive a 2 lap penalty). If the Team gets 3 black flags, then the team are disqualified

Blue with red cross: You are getting past with a lap, and have to go into the pits.(will only be used in the finals and not Le Mans)

Checked flag: The race is over and you have to drive slowly in the pit.

Weight: The weight indicates a minimum weight you should weigh when you come in from the heat or pit stop under Le Mans.
The weight is incl. everything; equipment (gloves, helmet, etc.) If you can't reach the minimum weight, the kart will be compensated with lead blocks. It is always the driver's responsibility that the weight is achieved. RHOC's staff may at any time take samples of drivers. If you do not achieve minimum weight; you will be subtracted with 15 positions from the heat. The second time excluded. (There can be max. 30 kg. on the karts) Underweight under Le Mans will be punished with 1 lap for every 5 kg interval.

Trophies: There will be gifts and trophies to the 3 best in each class.

Important information: All results will be printed out, and can be found in the reception.

You must at all times comply with the RaceHalls rules and instructions.
